

Working with the Law of Attraction

June 18, 2008

RISING ABOVE THE MUCK

In his book, "Illusions: The Adventures of a Reluctant Messiah," Richard Bach tells of a village of creatures living their lives clinging to a river bottom, while a crystalline river flowed above them. One brave soul realized that life could be so much more than what they'd all been taught about the struggle of life down in the muck of the river bottom. He let go of his rock and was swept upwards into the current, where he declared, "Our true work is this voyage, this adventure."

James Ray is one of my teachers, and has a new book and dvd about creating lives of Harmonic Wealth

To me, this illustrates what happens to most of us in this life, trained to cling to what has been accepted by past generations, living in past times. Today's world, however, offers us a release from old patterns, if we but dare to let go and re-train our minds to believe that the purpose of our lives is joy. In seeking that which bring us joy, we can manifest anything we set our hearts on. In believing in a current of goodwill, we can create the lives we want.

Putting it into Practice What's surrounding you?

Find out what The Secret is all about:

One of the ways of Living It Daily is to surround yourself -- immerse yourself -- in things that will support your belief that you have the power to create your own reality. You've been bombarded by negative thoughts and teachings, all through your life -- and you can see evidence in your life today that reflects those negative thought patterns, can't you?

Now, however -- if you've chosen to take a new path and begin creating the life you envision for yourself -- it's necessary to surround yourself with tools which will help you change your thought patterns and beliefs. These tools include books, films, inspirational screensavers, vision boards, music cds, dvd films, metaphysical get-togethers, conversations that are uplifting... the list goes on and on. To change your life, you will be creating by acts of conscious choice rather than offering whatever unconscious thought flits through your brain. The responsibility is yours to make this new way of life a priority.

I offer a short list of resources on my website which might give you some ideas. You could also go to a library and browse through the spiritual section, most of which can be found in the 130's to the 290's. Or every major bookstore has a spiritual/metaphysical section full of enlightening books; stand in front of the shelf and see which ones "call" to you and sit down with them for 15 minutes or an hour.

There are many resources which will support you in your quest to adopt new, empowering beliefs. You can choose what you read, who you hang out with, which movies you go to. And in that making those choices consciously -- that is, by deciding for yourself what you will give your focus to -- you take powerful steps toward all that you want your life to be. As you think new thoughts, the Law of Attraction brings things, people, and circumstances to you that match your vision.

Q&A I'm going to use this Q&A section to make an announcement, and then leave you with a comic by Bill Watterson (see below).

Since most of the questions I am asked have to do with manifesting money, abundance and meaningful work, I've created a second e-newsletter devoted entirely to this subject. The newsletter, called "Bursting with Abundance," will be available on a subscription basis for $12.00 per month. I'll be sending everyone on this mailing list the first two issues at no cost. If it's of benefit to you and you would like to continue receiving it, you'll be able to subscribe from the newsletter or from my website, www.BelieveInYourDreams.net.

The first issue of "Bursting with Abundance" will reach your inbox on Friday, June 20th. I hope you enjoy it!
