"Why am I here?"

I'd ventured to guess that nearly every human being eventually asks themselves the question, "Why am I here?" or "What is my purpose?"

It's common that we go through our early lives without too much thought as to what the Big Picture is. But by the time most of us reach our 40s and 50s (sometimes younger), there becomes an intensifying yearning to understand why we're here. Surely, we think, life can't be just about paying the bills, accomplishing a few goals, and going on vacation once a year.

I believe it's by design that we become more and more "bothered" by that question, after having some years to bop around experiencing Earth. Our Souls have it planned that way, and at a certain point, the Soul wants us to get down to business and plug into our Divine Purpose. Most people I know have a need, whether vague or actually quite strong, to know why they are here.

Each person's purpose is uniquely expressed, because no two people are exactly alike. There are some broad categories that purposes fall into, such as Teaching/Learning, Creativity/Art, Love, Adventure/Fun, etc. I'll have to go into those another time.

What I'd like to address in this column is an inkling I have about the Soul's Purpose of anyone who is asking themselves these questions right now. If you are in the phase of wondering why you're here, this applies to you.

Our planet and all beings upon it are undergoing a dramatic and exciting shift. We are moving from a fear-based, separatist paradigm to an era of integration and Oneness. The movement towards peace, recognition that we are all One, veneration for all of life and the planet itself -- these are the energies that are swirling around us causing great change. Embracing and sharing the concepts of Oneness and Unconditional Love is THE task to be undertaken at this time, so everyone who is yearning to uncover and express their Soul's Purpose has one of these "themes" calling for expression.

Think about or meditate on these concepts, and see if one calls to you: Oneness (we are all One, there is no separation), Love, Planetary Connectedness, Connection to the Divine Within, Connection with Universal Energies, Peace... (There may be other words that occur to you, as words are merely symbols we use to express concepts.)

At this point in our planetary evolution, it's vitally important that each of us becomes aware of our role to play in shifting the Earth and all its inhabitants into the new era. You have a vital role to play. You have a unique expression of a higher ideal that will help The All. You wouldn't be here otherwise.

Please feel free to write to me about your insights, thoughts and questions about Soul's Purpose. I'll help in any way I can to help you clarify and strengthen your understanding of why you are here. ~
